PRETTY SOCIETY WEDDING

UNION OF MISS BLANCHE CORNWELL AND J. S. WALKER.

At St. Andrews Cathedral—Decorations and Music—The Reception—Many Beautiful Gifts.

The marriage of Miss Blanche Cornwell and Mr. John S. Walker was solemnized at St. Andrew's Cathedral at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, Bishop Willis officiating. For the occasion the church was beautifully decorated with flowers, palms and maile.

The ceremony was simple. The groom was attended by J. O. Carter, Jr., and the bride by Misses Kate Cornwell and Walker. Col. W. H. Cornwell, the father, gave the bride away. Wray Taylor played Mendelssohn's Wedding March as the bridal party entered the church and Schubert's serenade in a low key as the ceremony was in progress. The church was crowded with the friends of the contracting parties.

From the Cathedral door the bridal party repaired to the home of Mrs. Walker in Nuuanu valley, where a reception was held. Owing to the recent death of the bride's grandmother, only a few near relatives and close friends were invited to this function. The young couple stood in the main parlor to the right of the entrance.

The grounds and house were beautifully illuminated for this occasion. Over the front entrance two Hawaiian flags were gracefully draped. In the hallway were potted plants and palms, handsomely arranged. The principal decorations, however, were in the room where the bride and groom received the congratulations of their friends. There appeared the beautiful floral pieces sent by friends of the bride from San Francisco, and the choicest selections of Hawaiian flowers in artistic and beautiful designs.

The remembrances were very pretty and valuable, and made a very striking display. Many of them came from friends of both the contracting parties in the States, though the largest number were from Island friends.

ODDS AND ENDS.

Vast fortunes are supposed to lie buried and forgotten in the Mexican mountains.

A fast baseball pitcher is said to deliver the ball at a speed rate of a mile a minute.

The social club Kobo Valley at Bar Harbor, Me., has the distinction of being the only club to which James G. Blaine ever belonged.

Chicago has a law that prohibits the sale of the poisoned cigarette, those brands containing opium, morphine, glycerin, sugar, belladonna, etc.

A Liberty (Me.) man has a 12 years' growth of beard which is between 6 and 7 feet in length. He wears it plaited in a pigtail resembling a Chinaman's cue.

A log of African mahogany, said to be the largest ever landed in England, was recently sold in London. It measured 30 by 40 inches and was 41½ feet long, free of knots, shakes and all other defects.

Farmers in western Kansas are exterminating prairie dogs by plugging up their burrows with tin cans open end downward. The animal wears itself out in the vain attempt to dig its way through the tin.

A Chinese engineer, educated in New Haven, is about completing a telegraph line 3,000 miles long across the Gobi desert, from Peking to Kashgar, Chinese Turkestan. It has been three years under construction.

The American fashion of apartment flats is not only enduring Constantinople with blocks of buildings of imposing dimensions, but it is transforming many of the larger dwelling houses into humble imitations of these gigantic edifices.

It is said that glacial action has in places on the Union Pacific road moved the mountains down on the narrow right of way along the Columbia river, where the cliff rises often 400 feet above the track, leaving now hardly a footing for the truck.

Chicago's Art Institute has received as a gift from Harriet Hosmer the cast she made in 1853 of the clasped hands of Robert Browning and his wife. This is the cast of which Hawthorne wrote in "The Marble Faun." It symbolizes the individuality and heroic union of two poetic lives.

The practice of cremation is growing so much in and around Philadelphia that patterns of urns for holding ashes are now exhibited and sold. Some are made of metal and others of onyx and marble, and more money can be put into an urn than in a coffin if relatives of the incinerated one are so inclined.

An esteemed contemporary of Milan has a new department, with the head, "Permanent Announcement," consisting of a list of names under this introduction, "The following persons are invited to call and settle their bills," the amounts of which are stated opposite the respective names. The announcement is only temporary in the cases of those who settle.

"It is the best patent medicine in the world" is what Mr. E. M. Hartman, of Marquam, Oregon, says of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. "What leads me to make this assertion is from the fact that dysentery in its worst form was prevalent around here last summer and it never took over two or three doses of that remedy to effect a complete cure." CLUBS OF THE WEST.

WOMEN INTERESTED IN POLITICAL ECONOMY AND CIVIC AFFAIRS.

A General View of Western and Northwestern Women's Clubs—Women Prominently Connected With Them—Twenty-five Clubs in Chicago Alone.

[Copyright, 1895, by American Press Association.]

In surveying the field of the G. F. W. C. it is impossible not to notice the progressive spirit and practical lines of work of the western clubs. Southern clubs are almost purely literary or social; eastern clubs followed the same general lines in their earlier history, but have of late shown a great tendency toward the development along lines of civic investigation and political economy, including such subjects as proportional representation, initiative and referendum, and the financial basis, which have been characteristic of the evolution of the club idea within the past decade. This particular trend is especially noticeable in western and northwestern clubs.

To specify in detail in a comparative limited article is impossible, but a general review of representative western clubs is one of the most interesting studies presented in the entire federation.

In the city of Chicago alone there are about 25 clubs in the federation. It is fair to presume that these clubs are as representative of the west as the clubs of New York city are for the east.

Among the more prominent of these may be mentioned Hull House, the Chicago Women's club, the Friday club, the Archi club, the Heliades, Friends in Council, Kindergarten club, the Klio club, the Society For Physical Culture and Correct Dress, and the National Household Economic association. Hull House is to Chicago what Toynbee Hall is to London, and Miss Jane Addams, its founder, head and inspiration, is one of the foremost humanitarians of the age and a living exponent of that practical Christianity which goes hand in hand with that rational philosophy of civilization which offers the proletariat of our great cities the benefits of this life as well as the promise of the life to come. The world has long been familiar with theoretical charity. It is such institutions as Hull House which convert those theories into practice, and the institutions themselves are like oases in the midst of the plague spots of our civilization.

The Chicago Women's club declares in its constitution that it exists for "mutual sympathy and counsel, a united effort toward the higher civilization of humanity and general philanthropic and literary work." These declarations have been well borne out by its united work and by the achievements of distinguished individual members. Mrs. Lucy L. Flower, a trustee of the University of Chicago, has for 20 years been prominent in the philanthropic, educational and reform work in the city of Chicago. Mrs. Henrietta, the president of the federation; Mrs. Lindon W. Bates, Egyptologist, author and critic; Miss Ada C. Sweet, one of the foremost business women of Chicago; Mrs. Potter Palmer, who is an authority in her wide and varied information on woman's work throughout the civilized world, and especially in oriental countries; Mrs. Matilda B. Carse, the great worker in the W. C. T. U. and founder of the Woman's temple of Chicago; Mrs. John C. Conoley, the president of the Chicago Women's club, a brainy and energetic woman, and Dr. Sarah Hackett Stevenson, a prominent and successful physician, are some of the members of the Chicago Women's club, and on its honorary list are the names of Mrs. Laura Ormiston Chant, Miss Harriett Hosmer, Julia Ward Howe, Lady Henry Somerset and the Countess of Aberdeen.

The practical work entered into by this club can probably not be excelled by the record of any in the country. It has entered extensively into moral and social reform and has assisted in improving the management of orphan asylums, workhouses and many public institutions. It has had its influence in obtaining better street cleaning and in placing women in charge of police stations. It has been interested in obtaining positions for women on the school board and placing them in libraries.

The Archi club is artistic. Its members are all associate members of the Art institute. Six years ago this club was organized, with 18 women. It now has a membership of over 600 and is the second largest club in the city. The Kindergarten club, the Society For Physical Culture and Correct Dress, and the National Household Economic association sufficiently indicate their lines of work by their names. The Heliades, Daughters of the Sun, from the Greek Helios, follows in its course all the lands upon which the sun shines.

San Francisco has in the federation such prosperous and influential clubs as the Century club of California, Sorosis, the Woman's council, the Laurel club, the Guidon club and the Presidio. The Hawaiian Electric Company.

The cleanest, brightest, safest and really, in the long run, the cheapest and best light for use in the family residence, is the incandescent electric light. Safe, nothing could be safer. A few days ago a prominent gentleman of Honolulu came rushing down to the office of the Electric Company and said: "Give me figures for wiring my house, and I want it done at once; no more lamps for me. Last night a lamp tipped over and it came so near setting fire to the house and burning my children and I take no more risks." This is the sentiment of quite a number in the past few weeks, who have ordered their houses fitted with the perfect light. Just think it over and make up your mind that you want the best and safest light; send for the Hawaiian Electric Company and tell them what you want.

"Style" in Furniture

It is equally as poor taste to buy "out-of-date" Furniture as an "out-of-date" Bonnet or Wrap. We have the advantage of all others in having the only absolutely new and "up-to-date" stock of Furniture exhibited in Honolulu—and yet we ask less than you pay for the old elsewhere.

In Oak or Birch are selected by people whose tastes run to the refined or elegant. For room decoration as well as for service there is a certain elegance and richness about these woods, not found in any other, and yet the prices are not what you would imagine them to be. Birch sets, with dressing cases having eberal plate mirrors, are preferred by ladies, because the long glass allows them a view of the full figure. The old fashioned large, square glass is quite as fashionable and as much in demand because the bureau to which they are attached give larger space for clothing.

We have them in all styles and in modern designs. Price, from $25 to $50.

Bedroom Suits.

Chiffoniers.

In these days when the ladies require many changes of clothing, there is a demand for space in which to put things away. The bureau drawers are crowded. A Chiffonier is necessary in every house where store room is scarce. These are made nowadays for gentlemen as well as ladies; some have a drop lid which unfolds to the gaze a regular receptacle for pens, ink, paper and other articles of stationery.

China Closets.

There is scarcely a family in Honolulu, or anywhere else on the Islands, who has not a few choice bits of china stowed away in out of the way places. Give them light—let your friends see them.

China Closets in oak are the proper thing, and a dining room is not complete without one;—the price has been an obstacle in the past, but over-production by a leading furniture maker in the States has helped us to offer them to you at ridiculously low prices. See those with the oval glass. Prices range from $20 to $45.

Secretary Book Cases.

Wall pockets and shelves for books are out of date; fashion demands something more modern and more artistic in design.

Side Boards.

Nothing sets off a dining room to more advantage, or adds to its convenience more than a Side Board. A dining room is complete without one. We have them to suit all tastes and purses.
